

Sandip Foundation's
Sandip Institute of Technology & Research Centre, Nashik
Department of Electronics & Telecommunication

Date: 22/01/2016

Name of Event: "Seminar On Business Startup"

Name of resource person:

Mr. Dr. Sanjay Govil (Ex- Vice Chancellor)

Objectives:

- To explain and update the aspiring entrepreneurs with all the facilities and opportunities available for Business Startup.
- To understand the technical, financial or other facilities available for up come business Start Up.
- To explain them the role then need to play as an businessman, and who and business Startup process takes place.

Outcome:

- The seminar gave idea to the members idea about entrepreneurship and hurdles one might have to face while starting up an new business.
- It also helped students to learn about the Management techniques of different countries how they are implemented and How the impact on efficient business management
- We also got the short idea about the JAPANIES Management Techniques which are world renowned Technique for management.

Photos:

