SANDIPTM TBI, Nashik

Audience: Students, Faculty etc.

Outcomes:

Under Intellectual Property Rights (IPRS), the student's inventor can get copyrights, patents, design and trademarks and trade secret protection to shield an invention/creation from being duplicated or copied by another individual or business.

Intellectual property serves as the foundation of innovation in our economy. Laws protecting intellectual property also reduce the transaction costs between inventors and industry by providing information about the quality of the invention without jeopardizing the ownership of the idea.

In many developed countries, the strict enforcement of the IPR role has a huge contribution to economic growth. IPR promotes innovation which leads to economic growth. Nowadays every business in the world is the creation of Innovation. The IPR can play both negative and positive growth in economic development.

Sandip Institute of Technology and Research Centre, Nashik in association of Ministry of Education (MoE) Institution's Innovation Council (IIC), Engineers Without Border(EWB), SF IEEE Student Chapter, Women's In Engineering (WIE) and SANDIP™ TBI, Nashik conducted webinar on "Role of Intellectual property rights (IPR) in Innovation & Startup Development" in which more than 50 staff and students participated
