

SANDIP FOUNDATION'S
SANDIP INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY & RESEARCH CENTRE
Mahiravani, Trimbak Road, Nashik-422213
Maharashtra, India

International Affairs Cell

Five Days International Level FDP on Effects of Technology Advancements on the Conventional Teaching

Date: 17-21st July 2023

Venue: Seminar Hall

Sandip Foundation's Sandip Institute of Technology & Research Centre has organized a five day international FDP on the topic “Effects of technology advancements on conventional teaching” on 17-21st July 2023 at Seminar Hall. The international speakers from 11 countries along with 02 from India have enlightened the delegates about the vastly changing dynamics of technological advancements and their effects on technical education.

The three days international level FDP started The two days national seminar was started with the Ganesh Vandana and lamp lightning by the honourable guest Mr. Nizar Jamal Mahmoud Majdoub, Ms. Ola A. D. Abu Leil, Ms. Naima Badaoui, Ms. Confidence Yafe Keneh, Mr. Collins Lartey, Mr. Emmanuel Rukomeza, Mr. Gershom Gerry Nkhoma, Ms. Susan Caroline Bolt, Jaiswal Dipendra, Mr. Romario M. Tefera, Makungu Joseph, Rashid Harun Or.

Day 01: Dr. Pramod Karole (Academic Facilitator, Sandip Group of Institutions) guided the present delegates about various opportunities coming along with the technological advancements such as artificial intelligence and machine learning in the pharmaceutical sector. How India nowadays has become a global leader for software used for artificial intelligence and machine learning. Mr. Nizar Jamal Mahmoud Majdoub and Ms. Ola A. D. Abu Leil from Jordan emphasized how their country is getting the benefits from use of the technology in the academics for remote students.

Day 02: On day 02, Ms. Naima Badaoui from Morocco detailed to the audience about the impact of being near the European Union on conventional education. How the European countries are adopting the vastly changing technological dynamics in the education sector.

SANDIP FOUNDATION'S
SANDIP INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY & RESEARCH CENTRE
Mahiravani, Trimbak Road, Nashik-422213
Maharashtra, India

She has highlighted the successful application of virtual reality techniques for understanding the concepts in pharmacy education. Ms Confidence Yafe Keneh from Cameroon has highlighted the resources her country needs and how India is helping them to achieve their goals in academics.

Day 03: On day 03, Mr. Collins Lartey from Ghana and Mr. Emmanuel Rukomeza from Rawanda emphasized on the international cooperation of making the technology easily available for the students across his country. The speakers highlighted the efforts being taken by their government organizations as well as various NGOs towards achieving the common goal of prosperity. In the afternoon session. Mr. Gershom Gerry Nkhoma from Malawi and Ms Susan Caroline Bolt from Zimbabwe highlighted how their country's education system is trying to perform better with using advanced technologies.

Day 04: On day 04, Mr. Dipendra Jaiswal from Nepal and Rashid Harun from Bangladesh stressed on the intergovernmental cooperation for improvement of the education sector. Following this, Mr. Makungu Joseph from Tanzania and Mr. Romario M. Tefera from Ethiopia focused on the help of international organizations for improving the standards of education in their own countries. The speakers underlined the need for possible coordination between the major countries for the achievement of a common goal of education for all.

Day 05: The Indian delegates Miss. Pooja Mehta and Miss. Diksha has highlighted the contribution of the India technology sector towards making available the cost effective educational tools. They have also stressed on the need of further focus on various ground level issues like common awareness about these technological advancements amongst common public. This session was followed by the visit of attendee and demonstration of the state of the art laboratories of Sandip Institute of Engineering and Management. and Mr. Mayur Shinde in a well ventilated animal house maintained under the pharmacology department.

The five days international level FDP was concluded by appreciation speech given by Dr. Dipak P Patil, Dean International, Sandip Foundation. for all the delegates who came from all across the world to enlighten the gathering with their knowledge and practical experiences and updated the knowledge of the audience about futuristic projects being undertaken by various IT giants all across the world. Finally, Dr. Swati G. Talele has given vote of thanks to all international as well as national delegates.

Glimpse of the 05 days international level FDP:

Prof. Sushant J. Pawar
Coordinator

Prof.(Dr.) M. M. Patil
Principal, SITRC

