Outcomes:

National Girl Child Day is celebrated every year on 24th January. The observation was started in 2008 by the Ministry of Women and Child Development.

There is a special reason to celebrate 24 January every year as Girl Child Day. This reason is related to Indira Gandhi. In 1966, Indira Gandhi was sworn in as the first woman Prime Minister of the country. January 24 is an important day in the history of India and the empowerment of women.

The reason for celebrating this day is to make the girl child of the country aware of their rights. Along with the daughters of the country, all the people have to be made aware about the discrimination faced by the girl child in the society. On this day every year state governments organize awareness programs in their respective states. Every year the theme of National Girl Child Day is different. The theme of Girl Child Day 2021 was 'Digital Generation, Our Generation'. The theme of Girl's Day in the year 2020 was 'My voice, our common future'.

National Implementation Committee (NIC) and Ministry of Culture has approved the event "National Girl Child Day" to be celebrated on 24th January 2022 by this Ministry as the lead Ministry under Azad' Ka Amrit Mahotsav.
