DTE Code: 5109

Date : : 20th January 2024

Name of Event : Seminar and Pledge on Voter's Day

Event Coordinator: Assistant Prof. S.K.Ahire

Participants : F.Y.B.Tech students (ESH Department)

No. of Participants :70

Aim :

The aim of the seminar was to emphasize the importance of voting and civic participation among students, especially on Voter's Day.

Objective :

- To educate students about the significance of exercising their right to vote.
- To raise awareness about the impact of voting on democracy and governance.
- To encourage students to become active participants in the democratic process.
- To have students take a pledge committing to vote in future elections.

Outcomes

- Increased awareness among students about the importance of voting in a democracy.
- Enhanced understanding of the role of citizens in shaping governance and policymaking.
- Motivated students to become proactive participants in the democratic process.
- Establishment of a sense of responsibility and commitment towards exercising the right to vote

Summary of Program:

The seminar commenced with an introduction highlighting the historical significance of Voter's Day and the importance of civic engagement. Prof. Santosh Katkade, a respected figure in the community, delivered a keynote address focusing on the importance of voting in a democracy. During his speech, Prof. Katkade discussed the rights and responsibilities of citizens in a democratic society. He emphasized how each vote holds immense power and can influence the course of governance and policymaking. Following the keynote address, students were invited to participate in a discussion session where they shared their perspectives on voting and civic engagement. This interactive segment allowed for an exchange of ideas and insights among the participants.

The highlight of the seminar was the pledge-taking ceremony, where students solemnly vowed to exercise their right to vote in future elections. The pledge served as a symbolic commitment to uphold the principles of democracy and contribute to the democratic process through active participation.

The seminar on Voter's Day organized by the Department of Engineering Sciences and Humanities was a resounding success. Through informative sessions and interactive discussions, students gained a deeper appreciation for the significance of voting in a democracy. The pledge-taking ceremony served as a powerful reminder of the collective responsibility to uphold democratic values and actively participate in the electoral process.
