Name of Program : Financially Aware and Empowered India: Financial Literacy Programme

Event Coordinator : Assistant Prof. G.H.Borate

Participants : F.Y.B.Tech students (ESH Department)

No. of Participants : 105

Venue : Mechanical Seminar Hall , D Building, SITRC, Nashik

Aim : The aim of the Financially Aware and Empowered India: Financial Literacy Programme is to promote awareness about financial literacy awareness among the engineering graduates for better and sustainable workforce in the coming financial years.

Objective :

- To provide students insights into financial literacy.
- To raise awareness about financial independence.
- To improve financial decision making.
- To encourage Savings and Investments
- To support Entrepreneurship.

Activities:

- Awareness Session: The event started with Prof. Gauri Geet asking students several questions about financial literacy and investment. She asked questions where students were obliged to respond and display their knowledge of the important and yet untouched topic.
- Lessons: She then went on to discuss the life stories of several people who became investors and multiplied their wealth thereby supporting their families and also achieving their dreams of becoming financially successful.

Outcomes

- Improved Financial Knowledge: Participants gained a better understanding of financial concepts and products, enabling them to make informed decisions.
- Enhanced financial behavior: Participants understood the importance of regular saving, prudent spending and wise investment choices.

Outcomes :

- Increased Financial Awareness: Students gained foundational knowledge about personal finance, investment options, and the importance of financial planning.
- Understanding of Investment Risks: The students learned about different financial instruments, risks associated with them, and how to make informed investment decisions.
- Awareness of SEBI Regulations: The session helped students understand the role of SEBI in protecting investor interests and regulating the securities market.

- Empowerment in Financial Decision-Making: Students felt more confident in making personal finance and investment-related decisions, promoting responsible financial behavior.
- Introduction to Financial Tools: They were introduced to various tools and platforms for investments, such as mutual funds, stocks, and bonds.
- Promotion of Long-Term Financial Goals: The program encouraged students to start thinking about long-term financial goals, including savings and retirement planning.

Activities:

Summary of Program:

The "Financially Aware and Empowered India: Financial Literacy Programme" was organized for the First Year B.Tech students as part of an initiative to enhance financial awareness among young individuals. The session, conducted by SMART under the guidance of SEBI, aimed to educate students about the fundamentals of personal finance, investment strategies, and the significance of financial planning in achieving long-term goals.

The program covered key topics such as savings, investment options like mutual funds and stocks, the importance of diversification, and risk management. Students were also introduced to the role of SEBI in safeguarding investor interests and regulating the securities market. Through interactive discussions and real-life examples, the session emphasized the need for informed financial decision-making and highlighted the risks associated with various financial instruments.

This initiative provided students with the essential knowledge to begin their journey toward financial independence and empowered them to make prudent investment choices, paving the way for their future financial security.
