Participants : F.Y.B.Tech students (ESH Department)

No. of Participants :286

Aim :

To educate students about the vital role of NGOs in societal development and inspire them to actively contribute to community welfare initiatives.

Objective :

- To introduce the concept and functioning of NGOs.
- To explain how NGOs contribute to societal development and upliftment.
- To encourage students to participate in community service and volunteer activities.
- To highlight the support provided by the government to NGOs for their growth and impact.
- To motivate students to join Swapn Purti Foundation as volunteers and contribute to its initiatives

Outcomes

- Students gained knowledge about the structure, functioning, and impact of NGOs in society.
- Participants learned about the opportunities for contributing to community welfare through volunteer work.
- Many students showed interest in joining Swapn Purti Foundation as volunteers.
- Awareness of government schemes supporting NGOs increased among students

Summary of Program:

The expert talk by Prof. Sachin Kakde, organized by Swapn Purti Foundation, provided a comprehensive overview of the role of NGOs in fostering societal development. Prof. Kakde elaborated on how NGOs act as a bridge between the government and underprivileged communities, addressing social issues effectively.

He explained the various ways students can contribute to community upliftment, including through volunteer work and active participation in NGO activities. The session also covered the support mechanisms offered by the government to strengthen NGOs, emphasizing the importance of collaborative efforts.

Prof. Kakde encouraged students to join Swapn Purti Foundation as volunteers to make a meaningful difference in society. The session concluded with an interactive discussion, where students shared their perspectives and expressed interest in contributing to community welfare.
